

Kathy P. Britton

Owner and Executive Chair

Kathy Perry Britton is the Owner and Executive Chair of Perry Homes. Founded in 1967 by Kathy's father, Perry Homes is a family-owned and operated homebuilding and residential development company headquartered in Houston, Texas.

Prior to her current role, Kathy served as the Chief Executive Officer of Perry Homes where she led the company to unprecedented growth. She is passionate about carrying on her family's 57-year tradition of excellence in home building and in giving back to the community.

Kathy sits on the Board of Directors for the Greater Houston Women's Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Visitors of MD Anderson, and the Board of Trustees for St. John's School. She is a member of the Young Presidents Organization and a member of the Leading Builders of America's CEO Committee. Additionally, she serves as Chairman of the Perry Homes Foundation and serves as a Trustee of the Perry Family Foundation.

Kathy earned a B.B.A. from Baylor University and a J.D. from the University of Houston Law Center. She and her husband, George, have three children and reside in Houston.

Todd Chachere

Chief Executive Officer

Todd Chachere serves as Chief Executive Officer of Perry Homes. Prior to that he served as the President and Chief Operating Officer of Perry Homes since 2020 and served as COO since 2016. Bringing over 25 years of experience in home building to the position, Todd is known in the industry for his integrity, dedication to excellence, and commitment to delivering quality products and outstanding customer service.

Todd leverages his deep engineering knowledge and diverse leadership background to inspire excellence in execution across all areas of the Perry Homes' organization. Under Todd's leadership, Perry Homes has nearly doubled annual home deliveries while ensuring exceptional construction quality and customer satisfaction ratings over 95%.

Todd holds a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering from Texas A&M University and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Houston.

Chris Little

President of Central Texas and Florida

Chris Little serves as President of Central Texas and Florida for Perry Homes. Bringing nearly 20 years of experience at Perry Homes, Chris oversees regional homebuilding operations, future growth strategy and trusted developer partnership relations. He focuses on both markets' quality of construction, product design, sales, and land development.

Chris joined the Perry Homes team in 2005 and began his tenured career focusing on the construction side of business where he advanced to vice president and soon thereafter, division president. Chris was later named President of Central Texas where he led the region to substantial organic growth – from selling approximately 75 homes annually to over 1,600 homes annually in less than a decade. Under his leadership, Perry Homes is a "Top 5 Builder" and "Largest Private" homebuilder in Austin and San Antonio according to the Business Journals.

Chris earned a Bachelor of Business Administration from Texas State University.